

GORRÁIZ ORGANISED TRIPS

NAVARRRE CUISINE. LA RIBERA

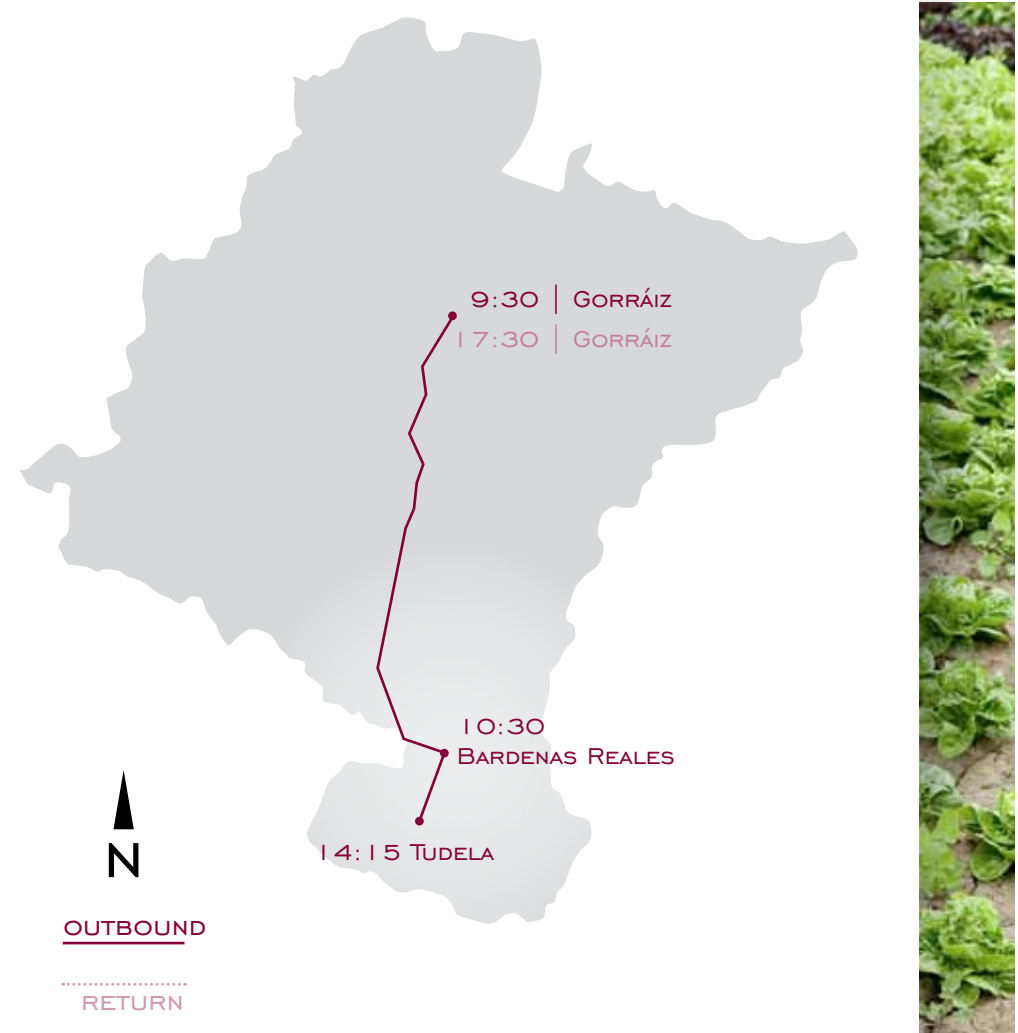

We'll go to southern Navarre, to what is known as La Ribera, a place where you can admire the stark contrast between the fertile valleys of the Ebro river and the desert-like landscape that is unique in Europe: The Bardenas Reales, declared a Natural Biosphere Reserved by UNESCO.

Later on we'll visit Tudela, a true melting pot of cultures where we'll enjoy its exquisite cuisine.

YOUR ITINERARY

NAVARRE CUISINE. LA RIBERA

9:30

Departure to La Ribera in Southern Navarre, a land blessed by the sun, with fertile market gardens on the banks of the river Ebro, a land whose inhabitants are friendly and outgoing.

10:30

This first stop will allow you to use all your senses to enjoy the stunning desert-like landscape of the Bardenas Reales of Navarre.

In this area, the disorderly, violent flows of water on stormy days has eroded whimsical shapes such as Castildetierra.

You can also enjoy the striking play of colours of the landscape and discover the origins of transhumance and the life of the shepherds, who will tell you for themselves, that's if we manage to find them in this impressive maze.

The next stop is an oil mill dedicated to the production of extra virgin organic olive oil, where an expert will explain all about this beautiful oil press and the secrets of this "liquid gold" in Navarre.

14:15

Lunch at a haute cuisine restaurant in Tudela, where you'll be served an exquisite menu of fresh seasonal vegetables.

15:45

After lunch, you'll have the opportunity to take a walk around Tudela, one of the most important towns of Islamic origin in Spain and Europe, basically to admire its most iconic monument, namely the Cathedral of Santa María, which has been a National Monument since 1884.

Before leaving the town, you'll be taken up to the Mirador del Cristo viewpoint, to admire the panoramic view of the city, the bridge over the river Ebro and the famous Mejana de Tudela, also known as the "VIP market gardens of Spain".
